Cut out a piece of thick cardboard for the baseboard and cover it with the black fabric from the jacket's lining. Hot glue the dragon's neck to the cardboard and secure with super glue. I used the flat half of a Grommet for the backing. By bending it with pliers and gluing it to the back, it forms a perfect hook.

Cut the remaining cardboard piece.
Cut two semi-circles on one end of the piece. Next, cut the other end into a triangle, gradually tapering it at the end. This pointy shape serves as the dragon's tail. Attach the head and the tail to the dragon's body using brads, in the same manner that you connected the pieces for the body.

Tape this securely onto the front of the dragon. Cut out the wings. Leave a tab on the edge to tape to the body. Cut out a hole in your main box.

~~Cardboard Dragon Costume -- Create in the Chaos~~

When cutting pieces from paper, put two pieces together, draw the outline of your part, and cut once to get two pieces. All cardboard is then painted with acrylic paints. I chose to make a green dragon, but think red and gold would be a good choice too.
