Crown Imperial is an orchestral march by the English composer William Walton. Walton derived the march's title from the line "In beawtie berying the crone imperiall" from William Dunbar 's poem "In Honour of the City of London". The march was first performed at the coronation of King George VI in 1937 and was substantially revised in 1953.

Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance marches, he did not resent comparisons

Elgar having died in 1934, the authorities turned to Walton to compose a march in the Elgarian tradition for the coronation of George VI in 1937. His Crown Imperial was an immediate success with the public, but disappointed those of Walton's admirers who thought of him as an avant garde composer.
